October – “Halloween Walk”

Calling all Boos and Ghouls! The Bartlesville Area History Museum is excited to announce our first ever Spooktacular Walk and Costume Contest! Goblins 10 years or younger, will be guided through BAHM where they can find candy stops and win spooky prizes at game stations.

Families can enjoy our ghoulish selfie station and vote on a favorite costume! This is sure to be a family friendly event you won't want to miss! The event is free but spots are limited and registration is required so call or email today to secure your spot!

This event will be held Tuesday, October 31st, from 1:00 p.m. – 2:30 p.m. While here, attendees are encouraged to enjoy the museum's newest exhibit “Faces and Places: A Look at the Key Faces of Bartlesville Development” on display from October 6th through December 29th or your ghostly little may enjoy our spooky coloring station!

The Museum is open Monday through Friday 8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. (closed on weekends and holidays) at 401 S. Johnstone Avenue, 5th Floor. Museum entry is free but donations are always welcome. If you have questions, you may reach Bartlesville Area History Museum staff at (918) 338-4290 or history@cityofbartlesville.org.
